Coronavirus Business Interruption Loan Scheme (CBILS) – UK level	The Coronavirus Business Interruption Loan Scheme launched on 23 March and covers a variety of different products such as loans, overdraft, invoice finance and asset finance. It will be delivered by the UK level British Business Bank, to support primarily small and medium sized businesses to access bank lending and overdrafts. Any business must be able to provide budget records for the last two years and demonstrate that they would be fluid in the absence of the Covid-19 crisis. It is aimed at those who have been trading for longer than two years. The government will provide lenders with a guarantee of 80% on each loan (subject to a per-lender cap on claims) to give lenders further confidence in continuing to provide finance to SMEs.	If 50% of the turnover of the business comes from trading activity, the business has a borrowing proposal that a lender would consider viable and has been directly negatively impacted by Coronavirus, we would assume that it is eligible to apply. However, 'Fishery, aquaculture and agriculture businesses may not qualify for the full interest and fee payment.	Can I get a CBILS loan and other forms of support on offer? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Yes, the eligibility criteria for CBILS does not require lenders to take into account the other forms of government support that SMEs may be benefiting from e.g. business rate reliefs or grants unrelated to the CBIL scheme.

	The government will not charge businesses or banks for this guarantee, and the Scheme will support loans of up to £5 million in value. Businesses can access the first 12 months of that finance interest free, as government will cover the first 12 months of interest payments. An update on 3 April announced the addition of the Coronavirus Large Business Interruption Loan Scheme, which will now aim to cover businesses with an annual turnover of between £45m and £500m, offering loans of up to £25m. In addition, applications will not be limited to businesses that have been refused a loan on commercial terms, increasing the number who benefit. However, the Treasury has not capped the interest rates banks can charge. In order to be eligible for CBILS businesses must: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Be UK based in its activity• Have an annual turnover of no more than £45 million• Have a borrowing proposal which the lender would consider viable, were it not for the current pandemic
